

Ladies Pool Series 2008 Rules

1. The tour is open to any Lady.
2. All matches will be played to WEPF World Rules.
3. Entry fees for the tour are £20 per event. A total of £80 for the four events. A deposit of £20 will secure a place on the tour.
4. The dress code for the tour is black shoes, black trousers and a polo t shirt.
5. Matches to be played best of three sets. Each set is to be best of five.
6. Lag for break in all matches. Alternate breaks throughout.
7. The prize fund for each event will be determined after the draw has been made.
8. Any players that cannot attend an event for any circumstances must advise the tournament organiser at least 48 hours before the event.
9. If a player cannot attend an event their space will be made available for another non tour player to bye. All money generated in this way will go back into the prize fund.
10. All players must register at the top table before 11.30am at each event. The draw will be made at 11.45pm and play will begin at midday.
11. All results must be recorded on the scorecard provided. Both players must sign the completed scorecard after the match. The winner must return the completed scorecard to the top table immediately after the match has been completed. Failure to report the result correctly will result in elimination from the competition for both players.
12. If any dispute regarding rules etc during a match arises then the players concerned must approach the top table for a decision. The decision of the top table staff will be final on all occasions.
13. Ranking points will be awarded for all matches. There will also be ten attendance points for each event attended.
14. Any player involved in violent or threatening behaviour at any event may at the tournament directors discretion be banned from the tour. Any entry money will not be refunded in this instance.
15. Players may not approach the top table at any time during the hours of play other than to collect or hand in a scorecard or to request a refereeing decision or other question pertinent to the tournament.
16. Any issue arising not covered by the tour rules will be decided upon by the tournament director or staff. This decision will be final and binding.
